

St. Paul Minor Ball Association Parents Code of Conduct

As a Parent of St. Paul Minor Ball, I agree to the following Code of Conduct:

It is the goal of the St. Paul Minor Ball (SPMB) to provide a positive and constructive environment for all participants while helping to develop the skills of strong character, courage and loyalty within our community. As Parents, you play a special role in contributing to the needs and development of every SPMB player. It is essential that all parents are supportive of SPMB programs and teams. Parents are encouraged to volunteer their services to improve SPMB. Just like the players and coaches, parents must also be positive role models. Through your encouragement and good example, you can help assure that all players learn good sportsmanship, team play, fair play, and self-discipline. SPMB is serious about maintaining positive and supportive parent conduct. If all parents can respect the following Code of Conduct, SPMB players will have a great baseball experience.

- I will be a positive role model for my child and encourage sportsmanship by showing respect and courtesy, and by demonstrating positive support for all players, coaches, umpires and spectators at every game, practice or other team event.
- I will not use abusive language or actions and will control my anger at all times. I will never badger the other team or argue with their supporters.
- I will not be a sideline coach or umpire. I will allow all coaching during the games to be done by the coaches and not by parents, guardians or guests in the stands or behind the backstop. I realize that the umpire is the closest to the play and that each umpire calls them as they see them.
- I will teach my child that doing one's best is more important than winning, so that my child will never feel defeated by the outcome of a game or his/her performance.
- I will praise my child for competing fairly and trying hard, and make my child feel like a winner every time.
- I will have tactful, quiet, one-on-one discussions of any concerns with the team manager/coaches.
- I will not argue with the coach in public, as this is detrimental to getting a successful resolution.
- I will remember that only nine players can play at one time.
- I will remember that the game is for the players.

I acknowledge I have read and will comply with the St. Paul Minor Ball Code of Conduct for parents.
